STRATEGIC OUTLOOK FOR FREE THROUGH TO OCTOBER

Our offer of a free strategic analysis of a therapeutic field or a business segment is still valid through October. As a result you will receive a strategic outlook providing the basis for future project plans. We dealt with numerous requests concerning most different topics like vaccines, stem cell therapies, product portfolios and many more.

Make use and profit from this offer! You may ask for more information at paul@aspiras.de.

SUPPORT OF NOVEL CONCEPTS IN THE HEALTH SECTOR

We researched appropriate partners out of different areas of health care interested in taking part in the realization of a novel medical centre in the upcoming Croatian healthcare system, for a Croatian company.

You will find more project examples as well as Letters of Excellence we obtained after successful project implementation from pleased clients under <http://www.aspiras.com/en/seiten/projektbeispiele.html>.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR HORSE ENTHUSIASTS

Do you share our passion about horses and horseback riding? In this case we recommend the following novelties on the market:

Ambitious equestrians and horse owners now have the opportunity to transport their horse much more comfortable and safe using a novel bar for the horse trailer. Especially for sudden braking it provides an optimal distribution of pressure around the shoulder joint by the anatomical formed, extra wide and upholstered contact area. Almost all horse trailers are retrofittable without a problem and for a reasonable price.

Furthermore we recommend the supplement feed and horse bodycare products, tested according to strict quality guidelines, from a young German company. Their appeal lies in their special composition and the use of premium natural ingredients. For this the range of products does not only convince by its design.

Please contact us if you are interested!
